Welcome to New Goshenhoppen

A few thoughts about God to ponder:

From the late Rev'd Dr. Eugene Peterson - Sometimes I think that all religious sites should be posted with signs reading, "Beware the God." The places and occasions that people gather to attend to God are dangerous. They're glorious places and occasions, true, but they're also dangerous. Danger signs should be conspicuously placed, as they are at nuclear power stations. Religion is the death of some people.

From the late Dr. A. W. Tozer - The heaviest obligation lying upon the Christian church today is to purify and elevate her concept of God until it is once more worthy of him and of her. In all her prayers and labor this should have first place. We do the greatest service to the next generation of Christians by passing on to them undimmed and undiminished that noble concept of God which we received from our Hebrew and Christian fathers of generations past. This will prove of greater value to them than anything that art or science can devise.

Holy, holy, holy God,
we worship and adore you—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Today in our worship we long for a glimpse of your glory,
seen perfectly in Christ, our Lord.
As we worship, may we gain new insight
about the mystery and wonder of your love.
And may we sense new ways to mirror that love in our world,
through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Chiming of the Trinity

*Greeting

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen!

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! - Nicaea

*Te Deum Laudamus

We praise You, O God,

We acclaim you as Lord;

All creation worships You,

the Father everlasting.

To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,

The cherubim and seraphim, sing in endless praise:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and mighty,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

The glorious company of apostles praise You.

The noble fellowship of prophets praise You.

The white-robed army of martyrs praise You.

Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims You:

Father, of majesty unbounded,

Your true and only Son, worthy of all praise,

The Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.

You, Christ, are the king of glory,

the eternal Son of the Father.

When You took our flesh to set us free,
You humbly chose the Virgin's womb.

You overcame the sting of death
and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that You will come to be our judge.

Come then, Lord, and help Your people.
bought with the price of Your own blood,
and bring us with your saints, to glory everlasting.
Save Your people, Lord, and bless Your inheritance.

Govern and uphold them now and always.
Day by day we bless You.

We praise Your name forever.
Keep us today, Lord, from all sin.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
Lord, show us your love and mercy,

For we have put our trust in You.
In You, Lord, is our hope:

Let us never be put to shame.

Invitation to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God,
we confess our sin, which separates us from you. We know how people who belong to you should live, but we fail to live that way. At times we have forgotten that we bear your image and have done evil. At times we have forgotten to live in response to your sacrifice for us and have acted selfishly. At times we have ignored the voice of your spirit speaking to our conscience, and we have followed the desires of our own heart. As a result, we have lived for self rather than for you or our neighbor, our lives have been diminished, our witness has been stifled, and your image within us has been tarnished. Forgive us, good Lord, through Jesus Christ. By your Spirit, guide us to live as people who know and love you. Amen.

Silence

Declaration of Pardon

The Lord, who saves you, says: I am the God who forgives your sins; I do this because of who I am. I will not hold your sins against you. Let us praise the Triune God!

Praise

O Lord, open our lips.

And our mouth shall show forth Your praise.

We Hear and Respond

From the Historical Books

2 Samuel 6

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

<sup>2</sup> And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale-judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who sits enthroned on the cherubim. <sup>3</sup> And they carried the ark of God on a new cart and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. And Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart, <sup>4</sup> with the ark of God, and Ahio went before the ark.

<sup>5</sup> And David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals. <sup>6</sup> And when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah put out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled. <sup>7</sup> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God struck him down there because of his error, and he died there beside the ark of God. <sup>8</sup> And David was angry because the LORD had broken out against Uzzah. And that place is called Perez-uzzah to this day. <sup>9</sup> And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and he said, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?"

<sup>10</sup> So David was not willing to take the ark of the LORD into the city of David. But David took it aside to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. <sup>11</sup> And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

<sup>12</sup> And it was told King David, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.” So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing. <sup>13</sup> And when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened animal. <sup>14</sup> And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was wearing a linen ephod. <sup>15</sup> So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn.

<sup>16</sup> As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart. <sup>17</sup> And they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>18</sup> And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts <sup>19</sup> and distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins to each one. Then all the people departed, each to his house.

<sup>20</sup> And David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, “How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants’ female servants, as one of the vulgar fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!” <sup>21</sup> And David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his house, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD—and I will celebrate before the LORD. <sup>22</sup> I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in your eyes. But by the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor.” <sup>23</sup> And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death. <sup>1</sup>

The Word of the Lord, by the power of the Spirit.

Thanks be to God!

*Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ

St. John 16:12-15

Hear the Gospel of Christ.

Glory to Christ our Savior.

<sup>12</sup> "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup> When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup> He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup> All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>2</sup>

This is the Gospel of Christ.

Praise to Christ our Lord.

Hair For Care. . .

The Reformation Sister Clergy announce a Summer Benevolent Mission Project! We would like to raise at least $10,000 in total for a Rise Against Hunger Meal Preparation Project. To encourage your support each pastor has promised to allow their hair to be "colored" by congregational choice. Just imagine what PD would look like if his hair was liturgical green, bright red, purple or some other color? PD has set the goal for New Goshenhoppen at $3,000 to be received between June 8 and August 24! On Sunday, August 31 the "great reveal" will happen when the Reformation Sisters host Summer Worship together at 9:00 a.m. at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Pennsburg or 10:30 a.m. in New Goshenhoppen Park. Seven clergy all with unique hair coloring to provide meals in Africa! The Brass Buckets will be out to collect your gift!

ATTENTION ALL COOKS: The Anniversary Cookbook Committee is collecting recipes for our publication. We are looking for your favorites. Please dig deep and send us recipes for the ages. Include those from your grandparents, friends, and family members with a focus on, but not exclusively, old German and PA Dutch foods. Recipes can be dropped off in the appropriately marked box in the Social Room, handed to a committee member, or emailed to krause1123@comcast.net. Please include your name and contact information. We are looking forward to some tasty treats.

SMILE GIFT BAGS is collecting new items for gift bags for the residents of Pennsburg Manor and needs your help! They are seeking donations of the following items:

- Trial-sized body lotions, shampoos, body wash, lip balm, hand cream
- Large print crossword puzzles and word searches
- Large print books
- Grippy socks
- Lap blankets

Please place your donations in the box located in the Social Room by June 29th. Your generosity will bring joy and comfort to the residents. Thank you for your support!

HONORING AND REMEMBERING FATHERS AND MEN

We are pleased to have this opportunity both to honor men and financially support Old First Reformed UCC, Homeless Men's Shelter in Philadelphia, PA.

This year, instead of delivering carnations to a health care facility, we wish for all men of New Goshenhoppen to be remembered. At the conclusion of both services, every man is invited to come to the chancel railing and receive a carnation.

 3 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! though the dark - ness hide thee,
 4 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!

ho - - - ly,

Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to thee.
 cast - ing down their gold - en crowns a - round the glass - y sea;
 though the eye of sin - ful - ness thy glo - ry may not see,
 All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2-11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

This sweeping paraphrase of Psalm 29 conveys a sense of the Jewish reverence for the sheer power of God's name, regarded as too holy for mortal tongues to pronounce. In keeping with its appointment for Trinity Sunday, the final stanza gives the psalm a Christian interpretation.

THE TRIUNE GOD

Harmony

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia,

This musical system is for a harmony setting. It consists of two staves, treble and bass, in the key of D major (two sharps). The melody is written in the treble staff, featuring a series of eighth and quarter notes with some ties. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia,' are placed below the treble staff.

Unison

al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

This musical system is for a unison setting. It also consists of two staves, treble and bass, in the key of D major. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff follows the same line, creating a unison effect. The lyrics 'al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!' are placed below the treble staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line.
